BCGE – Christelle Didier becomes Head of Human Resources

Geneva, 19 April 2023 – Banque Cantonale de Genève has appointed Christelle Didier as Head of Human Resources.

Christelle Didier has been appointed Head of Human Resources by the Executive Board. She will take over from Elisabeth Ray Tang, who has decided to retire. BCGE is present in 31 locations in Switzerland, France, Dubai and Hong Kong and operates 14 different business lines. As at 31 December 2022, it employed 874 people (in full-time equivalents). In addition to its international presence, the Group also owns three subsidiaries: Loyal Finance (Zurich), Dimension (Lausanne) and Capital Transmission (Geneva).

Christelle Didier holds a Bachelor's degree in Marketing and Corporate Communication and is a SAQ-certified private client adviser. She has extensive experience in the banking industry and knows all about its complexity. She began her career at Cr dit Agricole before working for Raiffeisenbank. In 2008, she joined BCGE, where she held various positions within different branches. She worked as a client adviser and branch manager before becoming a member of the Geneva Division Staff, which she led for two years.

The Executive Board warmly thanks Elisabeth Ray Tang for the central role she has played in BCGE Group's development for so many years and wishes her every success in her new life.

Blaise Goetschin, CEO of the BCGE Group, said about the promotion: "Christelle Didier has been with the Bank for more than 15 years now. She knows the BCGE, its corporate culture, its services and its employees inside out. She has proven that she can bring major strategic projects to a successful conclusion. The Bank is happy that it can draw on her management skills to inspire its employees and to further develop its human capital."
